

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of not only media consolidation, but stealing the public's right for accurate information on which to base their decisions.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest, not serve the conservative agenda. When companies control the airwaves, democracy is suffocated.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

Please address this concern immediately as our country depends on FAIR and ACCURATE and IMPARTIAL access to information. Thank you.
